NEWS LETTER No. 11

(21.09.2011 to 30.09.2012)

So long as millions live in hunger and ignorance, I hold every person a traitor who having been educated at their expense pays not the least heed to them.

- Swamy Vivekananda

Deenabandhu Charitable Trust, Mysore is a registered organization run by a few retired Kodavas based in Mysore. It is making a small and a humble attempt at organizing funds from the rich and affluent Kodavas and with that to reach out to our needy and lend a helping hand at educating their children.

Both rich and poor Kodavas are reposing their faith in our organization. While an increasing number of poor Kodava students and patients are seeking financial help from us, our Community's rich are not lagging behind in giving us financial support.

Unfortunately, during the last one year seven of our donors Pulianda B. Kalappa, Guddanda Poovaiah, Kokkengada Kami Karumbiah, Mathanda Thammaiah, Cheranda Jyothi Madaiah, Kelapanda Devaiah and our Trust's past President Col.(Rtd.) Pattamada C. Ganapathy passed away. We pray that their Souls may rest in peace.

In 1990, Late Lt. Col. Chemira Subramani who was then posted in Orissa died in a road accident. His wife Smt.Cauveri Subramani, to perpetuate her husband's memory donated a Lakh of rupees to the Trust. Further she and her brother Nadikerianda A. Cariappa together made a donation of another Rupees One Lakh in memory of their parents late Nadikerianda Aiyappa and Mrs. Accavva.

In 2008 a young Kodava engineer Biddanda C. Ajay Cariappa died in an air crash in Canada. His death was an irreparable loss to the Kodava community and particularly to his parents. In spite of their personal loss and tragedy they were going through, to perpetuate their son Ajay's memory, his parents Mr. Biddanda B. Chengappa and Mrs. Lekha Chengappa have made a donation of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs) to our Trust.

During the last five years, a total of 24 people have made donations of Rupees One Lakh and more to commemorate the memory of their near and dear ones.

In response to their generosity the grateful Trust has decided to keep their donations in Bank Fixed Deposits and out of the interests accruing to those deposits, institute scholarships of Rs.10,000/- for every lakh of rupees donated to be paid annually to a deserving Kodava Student in the name of either the donor or in memory of their near and dear ones in whose name donations are made. During the period under this newsletter, we have paid the following scholarships.

- (1) Chammattira Rikhi Somaiah, when she was in high school, lost one of her legs in a freak accident. Her father is under employed. In spite of her physical and financial problems she got first class both in SSLC & PUC. Hence she was given a scholarship of Rs.10,000/- for the fourth year in succession. This is a scholarship instituted by Late Pulianda A. Devaya who was the Trust's Treasurer.
- (2) Naganda Deepthi Vasanth is studying in II year B.Com. in Alvar's College, Moodbidri. Her mother died of cancer when Deepti was seven years old. In spite of these handicaps, Deepti got 90% in II P.U.C. She secured 'B' Certificate in NCC and represented Karnataka in a Republic Day Parade in New Delhi. In view of her achievements she was given Rs.10,000/- being a scholarship instituted by Col. (Rtd.) Pattamada C. Ganapathy former President of our Trust and Mrs. Shanthi Ganapathy.

This year we have given him Rs.10,000/- being a scholarship instituted by Kokkengada Soubhagya Ponnappa, Madikeri, in memory of her parents late Biddanda Poovamma and Aiyappa "PAKA" Estate Hakathur, Kodagu.

We wrote to the Principals of eight colleges in Kodagu to help us locate very poor Kodava students who are seriously pursuing their studies but are desperately in need of financial help. We also made announcements in Brahmagiri, Poomale and Coffee Land Newspapers. We received over a hundred applications. Out of them in consultation with the concerned Principals of Colleges from where we had got the applications, we decided on the following nine students for the special Biddanda C.
